

I am shocked and appalled that greater concentration of media control is even being considered, much less considered with such short notice. Do not lift restrictions on media cross-ownership. I demand more information, more time, and more public process for such an important issue.